

What Our Clients Say

"Innovative and their RPO Program not only delivered on its promises to improve our quality of applicants and recruitment process, but it did so at a cost savings that we could not find from comparable solutions."

Carolyn Koenig, SVP Human Resources
MasterCard International

"We selected Innovative's RPO to solidify and simplify our contingent and permanent staffing process. Innovative's Program will allow Interstate to better control and forecast our corporate staffing costs."

Alicia Bianchi, Director of Human Resources
Interstate Batteries Corporation

"The team at Innovative spends their time with us up-front to understand exactly what we are looking for. That way, when they do send us someone, it is one that has not just the skills, but also fits the personal needs of our company."

Linda Pharr, M.S., Chief Operating Officer
Batrus Hollweg International

"We signed an exceptionally large client and were faced with the challenge of expanding our technology and operations teams within a very tight timeframe.
